croftinglaw

We have a strong tradition in crofting law and a reputation as a specialist in this complex area of law.

We have a wealth of knowledge and substantial experience in acting for and assisting crofting estates and individual clients throughout the Highlands and Islands, including community-owned estates.

We can assist with:-

- Decrofting – of a statutory house site, part croft or whole croft
- Assignation or letting of a tenancy – either to a family member or to an individual outwith the family
- Apportionment and related common grazings matters
- Bequest of a croft tenancy
- Procedure upon intestacy
- Division of a croft
- Exchange of croft land
- Creation of new crofts
- Subletting
- Land Court representation
- Purchase of croft land under the crofting community right to buy legislation
