disputes

There is nothing unusual about finding yourself in dispute with another person or business. The vast majority of disputes can be resolved without going to court. Many of them can be sorted out without a lawyer. When you find yourself struggling to know where to go or what to try next, we are able to offer a wealth of experience in handling disputes in the following areas,

- Boundaries and property
- Breach of contracts and verbal agreements
- Consumer issues, including defective goods or services
- Contested wills, powers of attorney and executries
- Defamation of character and slander
- Employment Law* and business ownership
- Family law and child law*
- Injuries, accidents and compensation*
- Landlord and Tenant
- Professional negligence and defective workmanship
- Trademarks, websites and domain names
- Unpaid invoices and debt recovery

We have a team of at least 12 lawyers and support staff working on Dispute Resolution in its various forms. Contact our court department to be put in touch with a solicitor who can meet your specific requirements.
